From the Principal's desk

Giinagay and welcome to Week 6. I will begin this week with the accident that involved one of our families, the Rooney family. Jess is also our school cleaner so many of you would have seen her here every day. I want to firstly acknowledge Lindsay M who has approached me and assisted with much support already. I also want to thank every parent who has contacted the school wishing to help or donate funds. All these things are greatly appreciated by the family and for me personally, I know that this support and love is what makes our community so special. I do need to ask that our community support this family in squashing any rumors or gossip that is being passed around. This is a serious situation, but the family are together and supporting each other through this time. As the family currently need privacy, I ask that any enquiries be sort through myself or one of the executives at the school. I am in contact with the family, and they are updating me regularly.

We have a number of fundraising events already in the planning process for the remainder of the term:

- On the same day as we hold our Presentation Assembly 12:30 – 2:30pm, we will have a community BBQ, cake stall, disco from 4:30 - 6:30pm. The theme for the Disco Family Afternoon is Christmas and you can dress accordingly. Our Fathering Group, P&C and Staff are working together to make this night successful. If you have anything that you feel could contribute to the success and fun of this afternoon, please contact myself or the executives at the school.
- The Year 6 kids are planning a skip-a-thon/sports afternoon on the school Big Day Out so look out for notes regarding this one.
- Any parents who wish to make monetary contributions, can do so directly to the school, but not through any on-line processes.
- The funds raised from our end of year raffle will also go to the family so please assist us with selling as many tickets as possible. Donations are still being sorted to make this a super raffle.

- From this afternoon, we will have a best wishes/thinking of you book at the school for anyone who wants to send their best thoughts. Any cards can also be sent to school, and I will deliver to the family next week.
- If anyone has any other thoughtful suggestions, please let me know. There are other ideas, but these will be added later.

I am going to be out of the school for the next couple of weeks for a family event. I will be contactable by the school, and I encourage anyone with concerns to please contact either Mrs Daniel or Mr Hugo. I have enormous faith in their abilities to support you all over the next couple of weeks.

With the increase in cases of COVID19 variants, if you would like any RAT's please contact the office.

Have an excellent week,

Deanie Nicholls

Congratulations to Kindergarten who have Betsy for the week and Year 1 and Year 3 who have Bear. We look forward to seeing attendance levels return to their high levels now that we are mostly over the flu season.

Library News

We are currently awaiting the return of all borrowed books to our shelves for our end of year muster. Please if you have any outstanding books in your shelves, return them as soon as possible.

Our library still has a range of new books that are looking for friends to cover them, so they are protected. If you are able to cover these books, could you contact the office, and we will arrange some to be collected.

Thank you for your help in adding these books to our borrowing lists.

Whats happening in class 4/5

Students in Year 4/5 have come a long way this year developing a positive mindset that promotes resilience. They use this positive self-talk to overcome challenges both in and outside of the classroom. One of their most common phrases used in the classroom is "I don't know how to do this....YET".

NOVEMBER ARTICLE

ASD: Teacher Assistants and Strategies to Consider if You Don't Have an Assistant

11 Key Strategies for Teacher Assistants

An assistant should try to:

1. Work towards the student becoming independent. Try to allow the student to do things for himself at his own pace, even when he is falling behind a little.
 - A. Only start to help him when he is stressed and/or becoming overwhelmed by sensory issues in the classroom.
 - B. Doing things for the student promotes dependant behaviour and ever increasing reliance on you.
 - C. This independence will help to instil self-assurance and self-esteem in the student as he learns new concepts and is able to put them into practice by himself.
2. Teach the student coping strategies.
3. Encourage the student to respond to others in the classroom. (Prompt with correct peer group words and suggestions of how to respond).
4. Help the student understand the hidden agenda rules by discussing situations with the student, explaining what other people may be thinking.
5. Understand the difference between the day a student is able to do work and keep him on task on the days he can't.
6. Encourage the student to be flexible, social and cooperative by explaining the 'whys' and the 'hows' of each situation.
7. Catch opportunities where the special interest of the student can keep him motivated.
8. Fade direct support on occasions to allow the student to grow.
9. Teach the student how to learn.
10. Avoid being the one who rescues the student every time.
11. Avoid fostering helplessness (by doing everything for them).
